

YEAR 1 – ‘Oh I do like to be beside the seaside’

Sticky Knowledge

Locational Knowledge

- St Joseph’s School is in Poole, Dorset, England. Do you know your home address?
- We live in the south of England near the coast. We have lots of beaches nearby that we can visit.
- We live in the United Kingdom which is made up of four countries, England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.
- These each have a capital city.
- The capital city of England is London.
- The capital city of Wales is Cardiff.
- The Capital city of Scotland is Edinburgh.
- The capital city of Northern Ireland is Belfast.
- Scotland is North of the United Kingdom
- England is South of the United Kingdom
- The United Kingdom is surrounded by 4 seas; the North Sea, the English Channel, the Irish Sea and the Atlantic Ocean

Poole

- Poole is a town in the county of Dorset, in the South of England
- It is on the coast by the sea.
- We have lots of beaches in our local area.
- Poole has its own harbour. It is Europe’s largest natural harbour.
- Poole has lots of open spaces and parks and a short drive away is the New Forest.

Manchester

- Manchester is North of England
- It is a City like London is a City.
- A city is a large town.
- It is a lot busier than a town with more people and more buildings.
- Manchester has different ways to travel around it including a tram which is like a train on a road.
- Manchester has rivers and canals running through it.

The United Kingdom

The United Kingdom is made up of Northern Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales.

Seaside's in the past

- Victorians would go on holiday to their local beach rather than abroad because flying wasn't an option. The invention of steam trains meant people could travel to different sea side locations.

Music

- A composer called Saint Saens composed music for lots of different animals. He composed some music called The Aquarium.
- A conductor tells musicians when and how to play
- Music can be played quietly or loudly to help tell a story. Volume in music is called the dynamics.
- The names of musical instruments, tambourines, maracas, triangle, drum, xylophone (wooden) glockenspiel (metal)

Grace Darling

- Grace Darling’s father was a lighthouse keeper. Grace spent her childhood helping her father look after the lighthouse and in the boat.
- Grace Darling became a national heroine after risking her life to save stranded survivors of a wrecked steamship in 1838.
- In terrible weather, Grace and her father rowed out to save the survivors of the ship. They rowed a mile to reach them, fighting terrible weather and waves.

YEAR 1 – ‘Oh I do like to be beside the seaside’

Cross Curricular Vocabulary

modelling tools construction          sculpture          objects          recycled          natural manmade materials          handling          feeling manipulating	Test          Observe          Investigate          Explore          Waterproof          Not waterproof          material	Past          Present          Old          New          Compare          Seaside          Victorians	UK          Capital city          London          Edinburgh          Cardiff          Belfast          Ocean          Human features          Physical features          City          town
malleable media clay          salt dough          papier mache build          destroy          impress          apply          decoration          cut          shapes	Gymnastics          Straddle          L-sit	Tuck          Dish          Arch          Star	Map          Atlas          Beach          Cliff          season
Digital media          Online          Videos          Image banks          Space bar		Soundscape          Pitch          Tempo          dynamics	